2022-11-30 N. L. Fox We live in a fallen world. But the spirit of God is at work—it has been and always will be. In Apostolic Prayer, author N. L. Fox guides you in an atmosphere of prayer in the spiritual realm to ensure God stays first and foremost. Fox communicates that prayer is so important to the Lord. He welcomes you to communicate with Him. Whether you are speaking or you're quiet and listening to Him, He adores intimacy. Apostolic Prayer encourages Christians to understand whose you are, the power you have, and the faith to do greater things in the kingdom of God. It contains prayers and reference scriptures to pray out loud for your territory, city, and nation.

2020-11-27 Tella Olayeri The battles which first born faces this day are many. Praises are song the day they were born, only to fade away within a short time. Most first born are consumed on the way of life. Their destinies are either cut short, polluted or reversed. Smiles on their face suddenly turn sober as things don't work out as planned. No battle is too big for God to handle. He is always there for us. First born are special to him, as they are the gateway of parent to child bearing. Hence, God is much interested in you as a firstborn of the family. This book has eight hundred (800) prayer points vomited by Holy Spirit to take you to a higher realm and make you a leader of the family. 2020-04-28 Arthur Pink Much has been written on what is usually called "the Lord's Prayer" (which I prefer to term "the Family Prayer") and much upon the high priestly prayer of Christ in John 17, but very little upon the prayers of the apostles. Personally I know of no book devoted to the apostolic prayers, and except for a booklet on the two prayers of Ephesians 1 and 3 have been scarcely any separate exposition of them. It is not easy to explain this omission. This book brings together a great biblical study on prayer based on the Holy Bible and will serve as an inspiration for you who want to know more about prayer.

2022-04-19 Oppong Kyekyeku It is certainly clear to every believer the distinction between the early church and our contemporary church. Spiritually speaking, it seems we are serving a different God or Christ. For example, the early church evangelized extensively; but now, especially the western churches, are sleeping excessively. They healed the sick, but now the church folks are sick with all kinds of diseases without cure. They cast out evil Spirits, but now there are evil Spirit possessors in the church more than ever before. They were sufficient in every spectrum of life, but now the church members are deficient in every spectrum of life. They shared everything with each other, but now Christians are keeping everything for themselves, even tithes. They were selfless with the attitude of putting others first, but now the church folks are selfish with the attitude of me, I, and myself first. They were willing to die for Christ at any cost, but now Christians want Christ to die for them again for no cost. Finally, they turned their world upside down, but now the world is turning the church upside down. The church needs to wake up; otherwise, our next generation will suffer the defeat of apostasy as the children of Israel suffered after the death of Joshua. This book is meant to assure you that you have all that it takes, by the grace God has given to you through Jesus

1977-06-01 Jean-Baptiste Chautard The Soul of the Apostolate was the favorite book of Pope St. Pius X. This book shows how prayer is the soul of every apostolic work and is absolutely critical for apostolic success. Explores all the proved methods of developing and maintaining the interior life amid the bustle of daily activity. This excellent book will help you to understand the economy of salvation, as well as the many dead-ends that we fallen creatures tend to follow. A critically important introduction to the spiritual life! This important book has been recommended by Pope St. Pius X and his successor, Pope Benedict XV. Pope St. Pius X said, "If you desire that God should bless your apostolate and make it fruitful, undertake everything for His glory, saturate yourself and your devoted fellow-workers with the spirit of Jesus Christ, animating yourself and them with an intense interior life. To this end, I can offer you no better guide than The Soul of the Apostolate by Dom Chautard, Cistercian Abbot. I warmly recommend this book to you, as I value it very highly, and have myself made it my bedside book."

2016-06-02 Chris Gaba, Reverend The purpose of this book is to familiarize the reader with the mechanics, dynamics, and scriptural vocabulary of prayers of the Word and Spirit. Pray them aloud. The Bible speaks of praying in-the-Spirit (tongues) and praying with-the Spirit. This book addresses the latter. My purpose in writing this book is to provide a foundation of style, vocabulary, and knowledge from the scriptures, which can be used by the Holy Spirit to instill in each and every reader, the desire and practice of praying for their particular need, circumstance, or loved one ... in-the-Spirit.

2023-09-23 Nicholas Dlamini The Prayer Manual gives simple, practical guidelines on effectual prayer with sound apostolic insight and prophetic candor. The book covers a few basic precepts and moves to advance revelatory principles and blueprints that will ignite revival fire in the hearts of intercessors. It is a necessary tool for the believer who seeks to grow in intercessory prayer and the prayer group. Bible schoolteachers can use it too as an auxiliary tool.

2015-12-18 Shaolin Abrams From the beginning, God has called leaders to serve His people. For God, Abraham left his homeland. Moses declined Egypt and its riches. Joshua destroyed Jericho. Elijah confronted King Ahab. Daniel faced the lions; and the James and John forsook their nets. Matthew left his customs booth. And Paul left a life of power and prestige. Despite their trials, these all found the venture satisfying. Paul's account of shipwreck, floggings, danger, and hardship glows with suffused excitement. He was having the time of his life! What if he'd said no to Christ? Telling the Philippians about the things he had given up, Paul declared, "I consider them rubbish." And why? "That I may gain Christ and be found in him" Philippians 3:8-9. We enjoy the same perspective, for through His Cross; Jesus opened not only the door of salvation for all who would accept, but the privilege of service as well. Jew, Greek, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free...all may serve the Lord Christ. Some were apostles. Some, prophets. Some will be evangelists, some pastors and teachers. All are "for the equipping of the saints, for the work of service, to the building up of the Body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ" Ephesians 4:12-13. For the Minister of the Gospel, each day offers a new challenge. The phone rings; we are summoned to the bedside of a dying man. Later in the day, we help arrange a marriage. That evening, we counsel a soul in trouble. No other vocation offers such a wide span of involvement with mankind. Then when we stand to preach, think of it...in our weak and human hands we hold the truth of God, the supreme answer to the souls of man. The ministry of Christ is not a job, not a profession. It is a calling, and the noblest...the most demanding and at times exasperating, but it is surely the most satisfying and rewarding experience human life affords. With Paul, we can truly say, "I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, putting me into service" 1Timothy 1:12. Like the Christian life, the ministry of Christ is a relationship between the disciple and his lord. We serve Him; He develops and strengthens us. We must prepare ourselves first, then our sermons. The very fact that we are ministers will work against our spiritual life unless we are careful. We study the Bible, but for a text; we pray, but in front of a group or beside a hospital bed. While attending to these public ministries, our personal devotions may be neglected. Power in preaching comes in direct proportion to time spent in prayer and in the Word. Nothing...not speaking ability nor a forceful personality nor a persuasive manner...can take the place of the Spirit of God, filing and shaping and using the life committed to Him. Are we adequate to the task? Never. We have this treasure in jars of clay, but God accepts and uses our service nonetheless. Paul finally learned to accept his weakness, so "that the power of Christ may dwell in me" 2Corinthians 12:9. If the truth were known, few of us pray enough. We tend to rely too much upon our cleverness in programming and promotion, but not enough upon the power of God through prayer. Sadly, our churches show it. A definite time and place, preferably early in the morning, where one can shut out the world and feed upon the Word, unburden his heart, and commune with the Father will set the tone for the day and for a lifetime. The minister who keeps his appointment with God need have no anxiety about his work. In his daily walk, he will experience the unfolding hand of God bringing new power and effectiveness. He will see his life lifted to a new level he never dreamed possible, a level he could never have attained by himself. Pressed by the crowds, with such a short time to complete His task, Jesus still found time to pray. So must we.

2014 Mike Bickle As the founder of the International House of Prayer, Mike Bickle has devoted his life to understanding and practicing the principles and power of prayer. defeat. Those who wish to be delivered need to be pressed beyond their measure of tolerance, for only such people are open to the deliverance of the Lord. 2017-04-16 Phyllis Byrom Apostolic and Prophetic Prayers and Intercession by Phyllis Byrom details a gripping journey into the realities of intercessory prayer, both the much-needed personal devotion and heart preparation of the Intercessor. The manual further illuminates the gravity of a prayer assessment without discouraging those who feel called to this ministry. Particularly encouraging is the fact that the text indirectly presents an argument for strengthening the unity of the Body of Christ. It is recommended as a helpful tool in the arsenal of those who are contemplating or who are routinely engrossed in Intercessory Prayer. Like its author, the manual bears a strong fragrance for the Love of Christ. endorsement by: Dr. Cynthia James 1995-01-25 Ormonde Plater Intercession is an essential element of both public and private prayer. Using the Book of Common Prayer and the major elements of the Prayers of the People, Plater explains the construction of everyday litanies, collects, and petitionary prayers, as well as the composition of intercessions for church seasons, holy days, and special occasions. Plater begins by looking at the roots of intercession in the Bible, history, and ancient belief and practice, and goes on to offer practical advice for creating corporate intercessions in the local community. Intercession is a useful aid for liturgical study and planning for priests, pastors, deacons, lay ministers, and worship committees. Small prayer and intercessory groups will find it helpful for free-form prayer that is creative and flexible, yet grounded in prayerbook principles.

2023-06-02 Jacqueline Bell This debut book by renowned international Apostolic preacher, Evangelist Jacqueline Bell, provides lucid material which any believer can utilize to grow in prayer and to teach others about this foundational spiritual discipline. Concerning this book, Bishop Derrick A. Reeves, ThD, PhD, DD - Senior Pastor of End Time Apostolic Christian Holiness Church - writes, "I highly recommend this book. Evangelist Jacqueline Bell has produced a remarkable text concerning prayer that is at once practical, informative, user-friendly, and an overall good read. Do not hesitate to read this book!"
