An Inspector Calls GCSE English Literature 9-1 Revision Guide-Darren Coxon 2018-12-20 The only book you'll need to ace your AQA GCSE 'An Inspector Calls' examWritten for anyone preparing for their AQA GCSE 'An Inspector Calls' exam, this book gets you right inside the head of the examiner so that every single thing you write gets a mark. You see, this exam is as much about technique as it is knowing the play, and once you know the skills the examiner will mark you on, you can focus all your attention on the things that pile on the marks rather than wasting time on vague or irrelevant details. Learn how to: - Get under the skin of each character so you know them better than you know yourself (ok that might be an exaggeration);- Focus in on language, theme, form and structure, so you tick all the right assessment objective boxes; - Plan for the sorts of questions you're likely to get in the exam; - Write in such a way as to give yourself the best possible chance of a Grade 8 or 9. Darren Coxon has been teaching GCSE and A-Level English Literature for more than twenty years. In that time he estimates he's put at least 1,000 students through various GCSE exams. He can count on the fingers of one hand the number who haven't obtained a Grade 5 or above (and that was always teaching in non-selective schools). He puts this success down to a unique method which he'll share with you inside these pages.
buying this book you'll also have access to the Examiner's Head Facebook community, for further support and guidance. So come with him on a journey inside the head of the examiner! He's with you all the way Oxford Literature Companions: An Inspector Calls-Su Fielder 2016-09-01 Easy to use in the classroom or as a tool for revision, the Oxford Literature Companions provide student-friendly analysis of a range of popular set Understanding J. B. Priestley's an Inspector Calls-Gavin Smithers 2015-01-07 This guide has also been written specifically to assist GCSE candidates who are taking the OCR and AQA exams in Summer 2015 and Summer 2016. If that's you, then I can show you why I think having An Inspector Calls as one of your set texts is a bonus. Read my analysis and essay writing tips and get ready to truly understand what the writer is trying to say - and how to write clear, well-structured essays that merit a high grade. Studied the Gavin's Guide way, An Inspector Calls is a lively, thought-provoking read. Interested? All you need is a few clear hours and an open, curious mind. Why a Gavin's Guide? It is likely you have browsed online or gone to a bookshop and discovered that there are a fair few study guides on this play already. Many of them are useful reference points for summaries of the plot and the characters. Few, if any, explain or analyse in as much detail as this guide does how Priestley manages and organises our response as we read. Yet, it is understanding this - and being able to communicate that you do to your examiner - that will mean you can achieve your very best. This is a complete guide - it has more than 130 pages - and includes text from the play, extracted with permission from the estate of the late J. B. Priestley. As a private tutor I help individual students improve their grades. Now I would like to extend that support to you! With this short guide, available in both book and Kindle formats, I can help you:

* Get to grips with the plot
* Grasp what motivates the characters to act as they do
* Improve your essay technique
* Explore key Priestley themes, including social equality and how all actions have consequences.
* Gain confidence for the extract question.
* Give your very best under exam conditions. I am also ready to answer any further questions you may have on the text, via my personal email. This is a free service to buyers of my book.

An Inspector Calls. Compiled by Gil Maine ... [Et Al.]-Gil Maine 2006-01-01 This three-act drama takes place on a single night in 1912, and focuses on the prosperous middle-class Birling family, who live comfortably in Brumley, "an industrial city in the north Midlands." One evening, a man calling himself Inspector Goole visits the Birlings. He questions them about the suicide of a young working-class woman, Eva Smith (also known as Daisy Renton). Under interrogation over the course of the evening, the various family members are revealed to have each been responsible for an element of the young woman's death. This SmartPass audio guide combines a full-cast dramatization of the text with historical background, analysis, and a biographical sketch of the author to help students develop, express, and support their own ideas with confidence. It also offers advice and tips on planning and studying for exams and coursework.
