Strengthen Yourself in The LORD- Bill Johnson 2009-06-18 GO

Saving My Family-Steve Koski 2014-06-30 My name is Steve, father and husband to an average middle-class family. I'm writing this book because today my wife, son, daughter, and I are saved by the grace of God through our faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Our walk to Him was not short and certainly not easy. We experienced blessings and trials that tested our very being and sanity. This book will bring you through visions, visitations, and demonic experiences that changed us forever. I pray that this book might reach someone who is looking for answers that can be found within our journey to the Lord. I pray also that this story will be an encouragement, as it reminds you that God is listening to your prayers. The Bible states, Ephesians 6:12, for we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in heavenly places. It is this one verse that sets up our entire story, it states the challenge my family was about to be put into, however it also is the very footing I needed to keep me based in the word of the Bible, to remember who the enemy truly was in our struggle, and to remember Jesus, who was really in control of everything. Have faith—strong faith—that our Lord Jesus is a man of His word, that He is able to do all, and that He does walk with you always. Yours in Christ, Steve Strategic Spiritual Warfare-Ikechukwu Joseph This is a true story. His eye balls were rolling inside his skull as he came out of Cecilia's home. "What is the problem?" we asked him. This is not the person I use to know because his behavior changed. As we began to pray for him, he turned violent that three of us could hardly hold him down. About one hundred and forty four demons were cast out of him. The last twelve demons refused to leave as they claimed ownership of this brother. We stood our ground that brother Paul is a child of God. We rebuked and cast them out. Reluctantly they left, remaining their leader that also left after all false claims. This violent brother by now was slain in the spirit and slept like a baby for quite some time. When he woke up he looked surprised wondering what has happened. What happened was that he had gone and laid hands on this said Cecilia when he heard her screaming and shouting. Cecilia was not born again and had been demon possessed and ran mental for years. The junior sister who is a Christian shared with us in fellowship how the demons that visit or that are in her senior sister Cecilia one day threw her, the junior sister out of her own room to the outside. No hands seen but she was lifted up and thrown out. As Paul laid hands on her, demons transferred into Paul's hand to his body...Can a Christian be demon possessed or demonized, oppressed, depressed, or suppressed? More inside this book. Strategic Spiritual Warfare-Winning Your Battles within and without(Expanded Version)-Ikechukwu Joseph 101-01-01

Faith Beyond Warfare-John Woolston 2015-09-23 I do not like the term, "spiritual warfare". The term implies that we are in a battle that we have yet to win. The truth is that if we are in Christ, the struggle is over and the victory has already been won! "Spiritual warfare" is a term that was coined in the modern Charismatic movement. It means different things to different people. Some envision a vast host of satanic forces arrayed against them in the heavenly realm in the atmosphere just above us that they must constantly war against to maintain spiritual victory. Others see spiritual warfare as more of an inner conflict. I do not see myself at war with satanic forces trying to obtain victory. Even though I may deal with attacks, challenges and obstacles that come my way, I am not at war. I am at peace, enjoying the trip! I see myself in Christ seated with Him in heavenly places enjoying Jesus' victory, delivered from the power of darkness and translated into His kingdom of freedom! To my knowledge, this term is not used in the New Testament. The apostle Paul did use the term "wrestle" in Ephesians 6 when he said, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood..." Instead of focusing on being at war, I like to think that we are celebrating Jesus' victory! The victory that we have in Christ encompasses every form of spiritual conflict, wherever it may be found. The biggest challenge to the believer is not to overcome satanic forces, but the renewing of the mind to the redemption that we have in Christ. Paul spoke of abstaining from fleshly lusts which war against the soul. So there can be a battle within our own soul. I also like to think that as Christians we are in a battle for the souls of those who are yet living in bondage in the kingdom of darkness. In II Corinthians 4:4 Paul wrote and said that if our gospel be hid it is hidden from those who are lost in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of those who do not believe lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ who is the image of God should shine unto them. To put things into perspective, when we believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and are saved, we are delivered from the kingdom of darkness and given a commission to reach the lost with the good news of Jesus. But to be effective in our ministry to others we must first win the battles that are taking place within us. My friend Terry Mize once told me that it is important that we win every battle! There is a fight of faith. In every fight there will be winners and losers. In the fight of faith there is one loser and we win! Jesus has already won our victory over Satan and his entire kingdom. So we need to realize that going into every battle with the enemy we have already won! The only way we lose battles in our personal life is to not actualize the victory that we have in Christ. The term, "warfare" is used several times in the New Testament. It is important however, that we approach the subject from the correct perspective, otherwise we relinquish our position of victory in Christ and actually concede power to the enemy that he does not have. My goal in this writing is not to focus on the battle, the fight or any kind of war, but rather on the victory that we have in Christ. "Mention the words 'spiritual warfare' and fierce battles with the devil come to mind. While it is true that Satan tries to put sickness, depression and strife in our lives, God does not want us to fight the devil in long, drawn-out battles. God's Word tells us to rest instead. "In Ephesians Chapter 6, the word 'wrestle' appears only once, whereas the word 'stand' appears four times! This means that in spiritual warfare, we are to stand or rest in the victory of Christ. Jesus has already defeated the devil and put us on victory ground. And to help us stand our ground, He has given us His seven-piece armor. So stop trying to defeat a defeated foe. Just put on His armor and rest in His victory!" (Joseph Prince)

Spiritual Warfare Prayers for My Marriage-

Pentecostal Megachurches in Southeast Asia-Terence Chong 2018-05-24 Charismatic pastors, fast-paced worship sessions, inspirational but shallow theology, and large congregations - these are just some of the associated traits of Pentecostal megachurches. But what lies beneath the veneer of glitz? What are their congregations like? How did they grow so quickly? How have they managed to negotiate local and transnational challenges? This book seeks to understand the growth and popularity of independent Pentecostal megachurches in Southeast Asia. Using an ethnographic approach, the chapters examine Pentecostal megachurches in Malaysia, Indonesia, the Philippines, and Singapore. Each chapter dwells on the development of the megachurch set against the specific background of the country's politics and history.

The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics-Randy Martin 2015-02-11 The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics offers a thorough examination of the complex relationship between art and politics, and the many forms and approaches the engagement between them can take. The contributors - a diverse assembly of artists, activists, scholars from around the world - discuss and demonstrate ways of making art and politics legible and salient in the world. As such the 32 chapters in this volume reflect on performing and visual arts; music, film and new media; as well as covering social practice, community-based work, conceptual, interventionist and movement affiliated forms. The Companion is divided into four distinct parts: Conceptual Cartographies Institutional Materialities Modalities of Practice Making Publics Randy Martin has assembled a collection that ensures that readers will come away with a wider view of what can count as art and politics; where they might find it; and how it moves in the world. The diversity of perspectives is at once challenging and fortifying to those who might dismiss political art on the one hand as not making sufficient difference and on the other to those embracing it but seeking a means to elaborate the significance that it can make in the world. The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics brings together a range of issues and approaches and encourages critical and creative thinking about how art is produced, perceived, and received.

Power Encounter in Spiritual Warfare-Charles H. Kraft 2017-05-18 Acceptance of Christianity in Southern Polynesia during the eighteenth century proceeded rapidly without missionary activity. This fact attracted the attention of Alan Tippett, who served for twenty years as an Australian missionary to the Fiji Islands. What he found was that the key to their conversion lay in the fact that, without missionary presence, the south sea islanders responded to demonstrations of what Tippett learned to call "power encounters." These were contests, some staged, some not staged, in which there was a power encounter between the true God and the gods of the islanders in which the traditional gods were defeated. Kraft here discusses the fact that this power principle applies much more widely.

God Is Still Hiring-Joseph Essilfie 2013-10-29 Prayer has been the vehicle through which divine order is established here on earth: in people's lives, cities and nations. Through prayer kingdoms were subdued, situations were changed and the mouths of lions were stopped. The relegation of prayer in the lives of believers have contributed to the chaos and challenges we face in our families and societies. Men and women of dignity and power are falling, families are being torn apart and the unexpected is becoming the order of the day. God is calling us back to prayer, and God Is Still Hiring will inspire and take you to another level and maximize your effectiveness in prayer.

Spiritual Warfare-Todd Ortiz 2018-10-19 We have been given everything we need from God to win the daily Battles of spiritual warfare. We must have order in our home first before we can have order in the church, because whatever strongholds and spirits causing us to fall short in our homes will be carried over to and manifest themselves inside the church as well. The daily battles are won by first getting into the Word of God, submitting ourselves by faith to God, and dying to ourselves daily. Then we must put on the whole armor of God and support each other in prayer with faith. We must also have a deep prayer life of fervent prayer, surround ourselves with other victorious Christians for fellowship and accountability, and bring into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. One of the key elements to winning in spiritual warfare is knowing, believing, and understanding our identity in Jesus Christ. Spiritual Warfare: Absolute Victory with God outlines the demonic organization of the enemy in the battle, the main demons Satan uses against us and the church, and ways on how we can defeat the demonic army we are at war with individually and as a church. And know that Jesus Christ didn't come to make a bad man good but to make a dead man alive.

Understanding Spiritual Warfare-Apostle Sharon E. Harris 2020-07-22 The information in this book will change a church, a ministry, and the individual reader himself. Understanding spiritual warfare is as important as a country knowing how to fight and survive the attacks from another country. We are in an epic war for our lives, our marriages, our ministry, our relationships, our country, our cities and states, and the list goes on because Satan, the enemy of our souls, is strategizing assaults against us, and he aims at striking every aspect of our lives. If it can affect us, he will strike at it. This book has great insights into the spiritual realm, Satan's war room tactics, God's war manual, and our position in Christ. We get a glimpse into the unseen world through the eyes of the Holy Spirit. We must no longer suffer defeat and remain in bondage. This book is an eye-opener because the information it contains are Holy Ghost inspired.
