A comparison of Jewish with other sources, especially with Arabic, as far as they were then known, must be credited to E. Carmoly. He began his work with the comparison of the various sources in his 'Revue Orientale' (1840-44). He completed it in 1847. [62] Some useful supplements to Carmoly's works were presented by Paulus Cassel in 1848 and 1877.
