Economics for Beginners-Lara Bryan 2021-02-09 Because time, money, and resources are never enough to allocate, people as small as individuals, families, companies, and governments have to make frequent choices-choose to watch TV first, and then do homework; choose to save pocket money to buy books instead of snacks; Should the government choose to print money to save the economy or increase public construction to create jobs? The government will also use incentives, such as raising fines, to influence people's choices. Economics is to help us make better choices, make our lives, and make the world a better and fair world.

Politics for Beginners-Alex Firth 2021-02-09 Politics is about everyone. Even if you are not a politician, you cannot even vote or participate in elections. From what time do you have to arrive at school every day? What is a crime? What can we do to avoid war? Which countries should we cooperate with... These are all politics! We need to think about and discuss politics frequently in order to know more about the world, for example:

How was the United States born? How did ancient Rome and China manage society? Why are elections and voting important? When did capitalism and communism appear?
