The Keys to Success-Joseph Larnyoh 2008-05 The Keys to Success: 21 Things Every Teen Should Know is a unique guide for teenagers, providing tools aimed specifically at them for this time in their lives to help them attain success for the rest of their lives. Joseph Larnyoh and Chrispat Okutu present good, solid advice and ideas that every teenager should know. By guiding their thoughts and, most importantly, their actions, teens begin a path towards success and prosperity. This self-control is the distilled essence of what is needed to advance in today's world. Guidance is provided for teens to get to know who they are, be in touch with what they want, understand their strengths and weaknesses, and not allow them to try things halfheartedly. They are encouraged to develop their personal strengths as a tool to help them stick with life's challenges as they arise and keep going on their path. Increased personal strength results in more awareness, which puts teens in a much better position of getting what they want. Joseph and Chrispat stress that people are responsible for their own lives and show teens how they can get to know themselves, make improvements and lead lives full of satisfaction and meaning.

The Key to Success, or the Dressmaker's Guide-Mrs. C. F. Moll 2015-06-15 Excerpt from The Key to Success, or the Dressmaker's Guide Having long noticed the failures that so many of our young girls make, even when they are said to have learned the art of Dressmaking the author determined to find out the cause and if possible to invent a remedy. The conclusion reached was that their failures was due, first to poor guides, and second in their not hiving any definite rules for drafting. The first is easily remedied, as there are many guides to choose from. The second the author has endeavored to correct by issuing this little hook; giving it in as compact form as possible and using such language that all may be able to readily understand. With this explanation we send it forth on its mission, that mission to help those who are struggling to be successful in the art of Dress-making. Key Success Factors for Foreign Direct Investment (FDI)-Dusko Lukac 2008-03-04 International expansion present new opportunities for companies to generate extra value added and have become a vital aspect of corporate strategy development and implementation. Nowadays most European Foreign Direct Investments (FDI) within European continent outflows towards Eastern Europe in the countries like Hungary or Czech Republic. Each nation-state will have some competitive advantages. Why should non-for-profit company like RFH choose to enter just Bosnian market, the country which was destroyed by the war a few years ago and where progress is still needed in many areas and not some of markets mentioned above? Which special strategic and legal issues non-for-profit organisation must consider in such case? Why choices of investment locations, mode of entry and initial pricing strategy have critical impact on value added to the firm's competitive advantage? This report will give answers on these and further arising questions. It concerns Information technological (IT)-Centre of one German non-for-profit organisation (RFH), and its attempts to benefit of global capital while diminishing the negative effects of economic swings in the home country. On studying and analysis of the literature relevant and reliable sources of information, to invest in Bosnia and Herzegovina in the vocational training and educational sector is nowadays moreover absolutely a recommendable commercial decision. All economic indicators argue for it. The analysis determinate four main reasons for it: Improvement of vocational Training and Adult Training sector is one of the emergent sector priorities settled in governmental Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper and European Commission Feasibility Study as a precondition for cooperation between EU and Bosnia. Local competition in the area of Vocational and Adult Training is extremely weak (currently there are existing only 2 private companies similarly to RFH). Bosnian market offers enough potential customers which may use Vocational and Adult Training offers. These customers are local industry as well as students, scholars and unemployed people (Rate of unemployment in Bosnia amounts to 43%). A row of investment incentives and financial incentives are offered by European Union (EU), Bosnian government and Germany they reduce risks of FDI in Bosnia.

Business models and key success drivers of agtech start-ups-Lohento, Ken 2019-12-04 This interpretative phenomenological research focuses on youth-led companies offering digital services to the agrofood sector in West Africa. Youth is considered as per the African Union definition: individuals aged between 15 and 35 years old. Our research questions were to understand the business models adopted by these start-ups; how their business models and business model innovation lead to business success; other key drivers that can support the achievement of success. With this study, we aim to contribute to the limited existing body of knowledge on this nascent but growing business field in West Africa. Though focused on West Africa, analyses go beyond and are of interest to any stakeholders interested in this subject in Africa in particular.
