Booze at Breakfast-Catherine W. Scott 2013-10 Booze at Breakfast is a family portrait of the disease of alcoholism. Stories take us to the heart of life's deep truths, and this one hits us from all the characters' perspectives the abusive self-loathing alcoholic, his wife and the children's experience, and especially his son, Peter. It is charmingly interspersed with an Irish neighbor's spiritual wisdom and the youth priest's friendship with the alcoholic's wife and son. The redemption herein is hard-won, funny, and sweet. Engrossing, loving, and wise, this story will provide understanding for anyone who has puzzled about an alcoholic or his/her family's choices and challenges.

Teen-Agers-Donald V. Huard 1997-12-01 Dying isn't scheduled today, Ashur grimly thought. "Keep close to the trees!" He warned Raeven as another bolt scorched past, barely missing him. "Zigzag! Make their shots as difficult as possible!" He and Raeven dodged in and out of the trees as energy bolts whizzed around them. Ashur and Raeven are eleven years old. Growing up on Lalor isn't easy. Staring down death seems easier than facing everyday life. They are loners, bullied and taunted by other kids. Earning their parents' approval takes courage. Ashur and Raeven become messengers who run from town to town. They must prove their integrity every day. People across Lalor watch how they act toward friends, customers, and each other. Ashur and Raeven must display their best spirit all the time. Jerry Saunders and Kelvin Merritt visit the Junkyard system aboard Startreader. They're ready to learn how to work in space. Labor in a hostile outdoors builds character in the boys. Jerry's heroes take on new importance and Kelvin listens, too. Tales spin wildly as the boys chase legends of paradise from Earth and Caris. Meanwhile, a Carisian spaceship fights an old enemy. That battle changes everyone's future. Carisians started the Lalor Colony. Now, two hundred years of peace may come to an end with Lalor squarely in the middle. Ashur and Raeven face many tests as they carry messages across the thirty-town colony. They visit beautiful sites and have exciting adventures. Their success rushes Ashur and Raeven headlong into unexpected adventure. They overcome adversity and make new friends along the way including Kelvin and Jerry. First, the teenage team must rescue Ashur and Raeven from certain death. Then, the mind-brothers assist their new friends with their biggest challenge saving Lalor from invasion! Join Ashur, Raeven, Jerry, and Kelvin in an Encounter at Lalor...

Drug Alcohol Addiction: Evil from Within-Bruce Dutchuk 2016-12-08 This book is about what the life of the alcoholic or drug addict is like. You will learn the lifestyle is destructive, costly, and may run in families for generations. You may think an alcoholic is a simple willful misconduct, and the addict is a selfish person who enjoys his or her lifestyle. You are, as I once was, wrong. The life of an alcoholic or addict is a very painful, lonely life. They may never be able to overcome this horrible disease that has had a chokehold on them maybe since the day they were born. If you like many others are touched by someone with the disease of alcoholism or addiction, then you will want to read this book. Come to understand just what the real life facts are. You see, I am an alcoholic and drug addict, so I speak the cold hard truth. I will tell you how people fall victim to alcohol and drugs, and how I overcame the power of addiction held on me. You or a loved one deserve all that life has to offer. Inside are some suggestions that might help improve the quality of life of the alcoholic or addict and those that love and our loved by them.

When the Final Buzzer Sounds-Colleen Howe 2000-09 Sharing the sometimes bittersweet, sometimes unexpected, always insightful accounts of the lives of some of the NHL's most famous players after retirement and the turns their lives have taken--often just as wild and crazy as their time on the ice--this collection of poignant stories details the hockey's greatest players after the last goal has been tended and the final buzzer sounds. Through in-depth one-on-one interviews, the book offers vivid and captivating portraits of nine hockey greats, profiling heroes such as Phil Esposito, Bobby Hull, Gordie Howe, and Eric Nesterenko, and it chronicles the struggles and triumphs that came after a life on the ice.

Junior Drug Awareness-Terri Peterson Smith 2009-01-01 Peer pressure and availability make alcohol abuse one of the most troubling problems in society, particularly among young people. In fact, alcohol's acceptability in society and its representation in the media help blur the truth about alcohol's damaging mental and physical affects. Alcohol explores why alcohol is so popular in our culture and the problems it poses for individuals and society. It also looks at ways for young people and others to avoid drinking and prevent abuse, in addition to providing resources for what to do if alcohol abuse has become a problem.

Teens, Alcohol and Drugs-Len Mooney 2013-10 One of the most complex challenges any parent, and especially a single parent faces, is the detection of underage alcohol and drug use. Similarly complex is trying to intervene appropriately with teens who are using alcohol or drugs. Sadly, over 5000 young people die every year as a direct result of underage drinking. As parents we rightfully expect our kids to try stuff as they grow up. But staying on top of this insidious problem is horribly complicated and especially if we ourselves drink. This is a short book to summarize the facts about underage alcohol and drug use and arm parents with some strategies for dealing with their teens who are using.

Bootleggers and Beer Barons of the Prohibition Era-J. Anne Funderburg 2014-04-15 Bootleggers and Beer Barons is an accurate, wide-ranging, and entertaining account of the illegal liquor traffic during the Volstead Era (1920 to 1933) of prohibition. Based on FBI files, legal documents, old newspapers and other sources, the author offers a coast-to-coast survey of Volstead crime--outrageous stories of America's most notorious liquor lords, including those who made headlines during Prohibition but are little remembered today. Readers will find the lesser known Volstead outlaws to be as fascinating as their more famous counterparts. The riveting tales of Max Hassel, Waxy Gordon, Roy Olmstead, Pat Thomas, George Cassidy, and Max "Boo Boo" Hoff will be new to most readers. Likewise, the exploits of women bootleggers and flying bootleggers are unknown to most Americans. Books about prohibition crimes and criminals usually note that Canadian liquor exporters abetted the U.S. bootleggers, but they fail to go into detail. Bootleggers and Beer Barons examines the major cross-border routes for smuggling liquor from Canada into the U.S.: Quebec to Vermont and New York, Ontario to Michigan, Saskatchewan to Montana, and British Columbia to the State of Washington.

What Schools Should Do to Help Kids Stop Smoking-William Fibkins 2013-11-07 This book identifies successful tobacco intervention programs and strategies which have been implemented at schools across the country. It shows principals, counselors and other educators how to implement a school-based program with direct links to the community.

Raising Children Who Think for Themselves-Elisa Medhus M.D. 2011-02-22 Raising Children Who Think for Themselves offers a new approach to parenting that has the power to reverse the trend of external direction in our children and help parents bring up empathetic, self-confident, moral, independent thinkers. Children who are externally directed make decisions based on the peer groups, violent movies, sexually explicit television shows, and rap lyrics that permeate their lives. When children are self-directed, on the other hand, they use their power of reason like a sword to cut through the jungle of external influences. Fortunately, the author shows us, it is never too late to foster in our children the ability to weigh options, consider sources, and think for themselves. Filled with real-life examples, humorous anecdotes, and countless interviews with parents, children, and teachers, Raising

Children Who Think for Themselves Identifies the five essential qualities of self-directed children Outlines the seven strategies necessary for parents to develop these qualities in their children Addresses nearly one hundred child-raising challenges--from body piercing to whining wars--and offers solutions to help encourage self-direction

Prevention of Mental Disorders, Alcohol and Other Drug Use in Children and Adolescents-David Shaffer 1989-07 Discusses prevention and intervention when dealing with children and adolescents with psychiatric illnesses. Examines the impact of alcohol and drug use on these illnesses. 10 chapters and commentary cover conceptual issues in prevention, alcohol and drug related problems, prevention of learning disorders, risk factors in conduct disorders, public policy: risk factor or remedy?, psychiatric disorders in parents as a risk factor for children, post traumatic stress disorders, and prevention issues in youth suicide.
