Practical Studies For Trombone Bk 1

Second Book Of Practical Studies for Trombone And Baritone-Gerald Bordner 1985-03 This book of original exercises is the sequel to the first book in this series. The etudes are a mixture of the rhythmic pattern and solo type. Problems of rhythm, technic, and range are dealt with logically and progressively and with ample preparation. In the case of the trombone, special emphasis was placed on writing exercises which would allow economy of slide movement through the use of substitute positions. The book is intended to be supplemental in nature and should be a value to the student by supplying additional material in certain developmental areas encountered in the student's regular method book.

First Book of Practical Studies for Trombone and Baritone-Gerald Bordner 1985-03-01 The prime objective of this book is that of fostering reading ability in the young student. It should be used as supplementary material or as a second method. Range and rhythms are extended gradually throughout the book, and the keys used are thought to be those often used in school music.

Practical Studies for Saxophone, Bk 1-Nilo W. Hovey 1985-03 A supplement to any of the elementary methods available for saxophone. It contains studies for rhythmic development designed to aid the student in developing sight-reading ability. Included also are daily technical exercises which consist of indispensable scale, arpeggio, and interval work which should be included in the daily routine.

Practical Studies for French Horn, Bk 2-Robert W. Getchell 1985-03 The Second Book of Practical Studies is designed to logically extend the techniques already presented in the First Book and also to introduce and develop new techniques and rhythms that will offer a challenge to the intermediate student. Through the use of slightly more difficult and more extended studies, it is hoped that the material included in this book may more fully develop general musicianship and more feeling for style and interpretation and thus act as a foundation for solo literature.
