The Christian Counselor's Manual-Jay E. Adams 1986 A companion and sequel volume to Competent to Counsel. Indexes, a detailed table of contents, and many diagrams and forms make this one of the best reference books for Christian counselors.

Competent to Counsel-Jay E. Adams 1986 This classic has helped thousands of pastors, students, laypeople, and Christian counselors develop both a general approach to Christian counseling and a specific response to particular problems.

Ready to Restore-Jay E. Adams 1981-03

The Quick-Reference Guide to Biblical Counseling-Dr. Tim Clinton 2009-09-01 This A-Z guide assists people--helpers--pastors, professional counselors, youth workers, and everyday believers--to easily access a full array of information to aid them in (formal and informal) counseling situations.

Spiritual Warfare: Setting Captives FREE-B.y. Stuart, Ph.d 2010-04-18 One of the situations that the Christian counselor may face in his ministry is spiritual warfare. At the initial encounter, the symptoms may not appear to be a satanic situation. The only way you the counselor might be able to distinguish signs from any other condition, is through the Holy Spirit. Spiritual warfare has become an increasingly interesting topic for both secular researchers and religious believers alike. For this reason, the understanding of satanic activities should be one of the major subject matter the individual who is interested in being a Christian Counselor should research. He should investigate, analyze and gain knowledge in preparation for the unlikely event he encounters this situation.

Marriage, Divorce, and Remarriage in the Bible-Jay E. Adams 1986-01-01 Many pastors, counselors, and theologians consider this book the most helpful on the issue of marriage and divorce.

The Biblical Basis of Christian Counseling for People Helpers-Gary R. Collins 1997-11 If you are called to help people in crisis in your community, this book can show you how to use the Bible in counseling.

Evaluating Models of Christian Counseling-George R. Ross 2011-03-14 Initially developed as a classroom resource, Evaluating Models of Christian Counseling serves as a primary example of the complexities involved in integrating psychology, theology, and spirituality into the counseling process. The would-be counselor and the experienced professional are each introduced to a systematic evaluation model for determining how effectively a specific Christian Counseling Program incorporates psychological, spiritual, and theological constructs into their milieu. After presenting a working definition of the counseling process and its relationship to psychology, theology, and spirituality, an application of the evaluation model to four Christian Counseling programs is demonstrated.

A Theology of Christian Counseling-Jay E. Adams 2010-08-10 A Theology of Christian Counseling connects biblical doctrine with practical living. Salvation, that central concern of Protestant theology, is often too narrowly defined. It is thought of as "being saved from the consequences of sin." But God is doing much more. He is making something new out of the old sinful nature. He is, in Christ, making new creatures. "No counseling system that is based on some other foundation can begin to offer what Christian counseling offers. . . . No matter what the problem is, no matter how greatly sin has abounded, the Christian counselor's stance is struck by the far-more-abounding nature of the grace of Jesus Christ in redemption. What a difference this makes in counseling!" In this book the reader will gain an insight into the rich theological framework that supports and directs a biblical approach to counseling. And the connection between solid theology and practical application will become compelling. This book is one-of-a-kind.

Biblical Counseling Manual-Adam A. Pulaski 2004 All that was done to us, what we have done to others, the failures, the ills, the violations of our persons, the brutalities, the perversions of life, rejections, death of loved ones, tragedies, loneliness, abandonment, Jesus paid the penalty for all these sins, and provided the means to handle the tragedies of life. We do not need to deal with these violations and tragedies on our own. Christ is in us to work out our salvation daily (Phil. 2:12-13; Gal. 2:20; 2 Cor. 5:21; Rom. 6:3-6; Ezek. 18:20). Being in Christ, we are new creatures and we are to deal with life now from the biblical perspective. Our problem is not with Satan, not with people, not with the circumstances of life, but our problem lies in our relationship with God. Our focus is to change from a concern about self, to a concern about God's glory and that is accomplished by our godly responses to others and life in general (Rom. 5:17; Cor. 5:21). Thus, the answer to healing the soul lies here: loving God by obeying His commands (John 14:21), and dealing with unresolved actions of the past in a spirit of repentance and reconciliation (Matt. 7:5).

Christian Counseling-Gary R. Collins 1988 This guide has been written to help Christian leaders in their counseling work. Case studies are matched with biblical analyses. This then leads to a survey of causes, effects, counseling considerations, and suggested ways to prevent the problem.

The Christian Counselor's Casebook-Jay E. Adams 1986 This companion volume to 'Competent to Counsel' and 'The Christian Counselor's Manual' is designed to help the user assimilate and apply the principles of nouthetic counseling. It is a great tool for all sorts of training and personal development programs, as well as the classroom.

Christian Counseling-Gary R. Collins 2007 This proven guide in pastoral counseling has been extensively expanded and revised by the author to include recent developments and research, new resources, and attention to newly urgent needs such as AIDS, eating disorders, homosexuality, and violence. Written with clarity and sensitivity, this volume builds on biblical foundations and the best resources of professional psychology. It reflects the insights the author has gained from many years of Christian counseling. New Sections include: The Legal, Ethical and Moral Issues in Counseling The Multicultural, Multiracial Issues in Counseling Conflict and Relationships Dealing with Death and Grief Alcoholism and Other Substance Abuse Crises and Trauma Counseling and Terrorism The Mustard Seed Counseling-Ibrahim Youssef, PhD 2016-03-17 Mustard Seed Counselling is a systemic appraisal of biblical counselling; the authors easy style of writing is encouraging to those who feel a calling to counsel. Many people within the church are hurting and they are trying to make sense of what is happening to them. The answer is biblical counselling, working with the Holy Spirit to bring wholeness. The work Mustard Seed Counselling will encourage those who feel the call to counsel and have a desire to study and check their relationship with God. Richard Dunkley, Storehouse Pentecostal Church, Dorchester, UK Mustard Seed Counselling is an interesting model of counselling. Allison Pople, United Church, Dorchester, UK Mustard Seed Counselling is very close to evangelism. I could not easily distinguish between the two. Patricia Bolton, United Church, Dorchester, UK

A Comprehensive Manual for Christian Counselling-B. Y. Stuart DRS LCPC 2019-06-17 Although there are psychologists who believe that psychology is the answer to all of mankind's mental disorders; there is no one program which will be effective to help fallen man. While the scientific knowledge of psychology has its place, it must never supersede the infallible Word of God. Therefore, counsellors should use psychology very moderately and with wisdom. Moreover, there are not many psychologists from the secular arena who are of the opinion that the Word of God has any place in counselling. Still, counselling is a function and ministry of the Christian church. A few years ago I did a research study which answered the question, "What is the purpose for counselling in the Christian church and the role of psychology in this approach?" In my findings I discovered that many pastors were not interested in counselling, while others sent the hurting individual to secular professionals who do not acknowledge the fallen state of man. However, one of the most important features of Christian counselling is the truth of God's Word which has answers for any condition while helping the entire person: soul, body, and spirit. This sets Christian counselling apart from secular which is based only on psychology. This text is prepared for the Christian counsellor who wants to excel in the profession with a desire to help the wounded counselee. Dr. Stuart is an Ordained Minister, Christian Educator, and Licensed Pastoral Counsellor. She a member of the Georgia Christian Counsellors Association, and the National Christian Counsellors Association. She is Founder of Faith Restoration Ministries International [FRMI] www.frministry.org & Shekinah Theological College [STC] www.frbi.org which is an online Christian institution preparing men and women to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ to the world.

The Biblical View of Self-Esteem, Self-Love, and Self-Image-Jay E. Adams 1986 Who am I? Why am I here? Where am I going? Familiar questions in our day and age. But has our search for answers led us too far in the wrong direction: away from our true position in Christ and toward a dangerous emphasis on self? Recent decades have seen the rise of a powerful and influential movement within the church. Identified by labels such as "self-image," "self-esteem," "self-worth," and "self-love," this movement has one common denominator--the emphasis on self. Regardless of religious persuasion, everyone seems to be fighting what they perceive to be a shared enemy: low self-esteem. Now well-known biblical counselor and noted author Jay Adams brings much-needed clarification to the area of self-esteem and offers the church and every believer a truly biblical view of self.

The Quick-Reference Guide to Marriage & Family Counseling-Dr. Tim Clinton 2009-09-01 We all know of families or marriages in crisis. The Satisfied Workbook: A Spiritual Guide to Recovery and Food Freedom-Rhona Epstein 2021-01-12 Begin to break the chains and find freedom from food cravings through this biblically-based 90 day devotional from leading food addiction expert, counselor, and author of Food Triggers, Dr. Rhona Epstein. Satisfied is designed for anyone seeking to change the way they relate to food, from those simply looking for healthier food behaviors to those deeply struggling with food addiction and abuse. The time-tested, spiritual reflections in this book can ensure that food takes its proper place in your life. Rooted in the 12 Steps of proven recovery programs, and based on Dr. Rhona's experiences in more than thirty years as an addiction recovery counselor, Satisfied pairs scriptural guidance with her counseling expertise. This book is organized into three sections of thirty daily entries, which are influenced by the 12 Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous and Overeaters Anonymous and deeply grounded in the spiritual truths of the Bible: Section One: addresses the honesty required to face your food problem. Section Two: focuses more on underlying issues of food abuse—the emotional and relational triggers Section Three: a broader range of practical skills and ideas to help you sustain long-term change Dr. Rhona has lived through and overcome food addiction, so she knows all too well the struggles in beginning the path to freedom. That's why she has written this active devotional journey—to encourage you to take those first bold steps towards liberation, with God's help. By trusting God one day at a time, He will heal your heart and soul from the inside out. In doing so, you can be truly, fully satisfied.

A Counselor's Guide to Christian Mindfulness-Dr. Regina Chow Trammel 2021-09-14 Equips Christian counselors and therapists to confidently use mindfulness techniques with their clients in a way that is both practical and biblical. Accessing mindfulness is a therapeutic touchstone for a range of emotional issues, from mild distress to the treatment of trauma, but the term mindfulness has often left Christians wary. Stripped of Christlike spirituality, it sounds self-focused at best, and at worst like a fusion with modern pop-religions of the day. But the quality of mindfulness—of being fully present, aware of ourselves and our situation so that we can better respond to the chaos around us—is a profoundly biblical concept. And it can be used effectively by Christian counselors and healing practitioners. In A Counselor's Guide to Christian Mindfulness, Regina Chow Trammel (a clinical social worker) and John Trent (a marriage and family therapist) team up to offer training in mindfulness skills used in evidence-based practices, such as dialectical behavioral therapy, acceptance and commitment therapy and mindfulness-based cognitive therapy. These therapies have been shown to be highly effective in the treatment of many mental health issues, blending elements of neuroscience, social science, and religious training. This book is the ideal resource to equip those in the helping professions to faithfully use mindfulness interventions both professionally and personally and includes: A historical and theoretical overview of Christian mindfulness and how it contrasts with other mindfulness-based practices. A practical guide for how to use mindfulness skills in counseling and therapeutic practice. A section addressing specific challenges or situations that your clients face. Dialogue scripts and contemplation exercises to adapt for your own work. The practice of Christian mindfulness can be effective in helping clients manage their intrusive and stressful thoughts, emotions, relationships, and challenges. This book fills a gap for Christian counselors and therapists who are eager for a resource that teaches mindfulness skills from a Christian and biblical perspective.

Caring for the Souls of Children-Amy Baker 2020-08-31 Coming alongside struggling children can feel like an uphill battle. Yet children struggle with the same desires adults struggle with, are lured by the same lies adults fall prey to, and can find hope in the same source adults can find hope—in Jesus. This manual helps counselors share Christ—the way, the truth, and the life—while tailoring interactions and teachings to the understanding of children. Articles are written by a wide range of biblical counselors, authors, and pastors who have worked with children for many years including Amy Baker, Julie Lowe, Marty Machowski, Jessica Thompson, Jonathan Holmes, Michael R. Emlet, Garrett Higbee, Edward T. Welch, Kevin Carson, Harvest USA, Charles Hodges, Joni and Friends, Bob Kellemen, and Pam Bauer. Caring for the Souls of Children equips counselors, parents, pastors, and other helpers who love children, to boldly trust in the sufficiency of Scripture for counseling. Edited by counselor and author Amy Baker, this in-depth resource begins with an overview of foundational principles for counseling children and addresses a different counseling topic in each subsequent chapter. Topics addressed include a wide variety of general and specific issues that children face including anxiety, anger, abuse, suicidal thoughts and actions, self-harm, shame, grief, disability, disease, sexual identity, and many others.

Side by Side-Edward T. Welch 2015-04-16 Everyone needs help from time to time, especially in the midst of painful circumstances and difficult trials. In this short book, a highly respected biblical counselor and successful author offers practical guidance for all Christians—pastors and laypeople alike—who want to develop their “helping skills” when it comes to walking alongside hurting people. Written out of the conviction that friends are the best helpers, this accessible introduction to biblical counseling will equip believers to share their burdens with one another through gentle words of wisdom and kind acts of love. This book is written for those eager to see God use ordinary relationships and conversations between ordinary Christians to work extraordinary miracles in the lives of his people.

Preventing Prejudice-Joseph G. Ponterotto 1993-07-22 As the global community becomes more interdependent, the need for a reduction in negative racial prejudice increases. Counsellors and educators can play a vital role in this process, and this comprehensive book presents a model and mechanism which will help accomplish such a goal. The authors provide an excellent, pragmatic resource for understanding the nature of prejudice and directions for intervention that include a series of developmentally-sequenced exercises and activities. The book draws on theory and research - influential in the field of counsellor education - from counselling, psychology, education and sociology.
