Jesus of Nazareth-John Mark 2019-04-23 "Jesus of Nazareth, a Biography, by John Mark," recognizes the author of the second Gospel as that "John, whose surname was Mark" (Acts 15:37), whom Barnabas chose as companion when he sailed for Cyprus on his second missionary journey. In making use of the new title, the plan of the Editor is to present "The Gospel: According to Mark" as it would be printed were it written in the twentieth rather than the first century. Mark's Gospel has been chosen for this purpose to make available in more readable form this timely portion of the Bible. In John Mark the missionary is revealed a man of action. This characteristic influences strongly the point of view and style of his writing. As John, the beloved disciple, in "The Revelation" beholds the victorious Christ as "the Lion of the tribe of Judah," foretold by the prophets, so Mark sees Jesus of Nazareth as the strong, vigorous man of action; he writes of His mighty works in swift narrative at times so vivid it flashes like a burst of flame, as though the facts presented must have been on fire in the heart of the author. Written for the practical, energetic Roman, the Editor feels that this biography of Jesus of Nazareth exactly fits the mood of our own time, with its emphasis upon the practical and its insistence that the man of action, the doer, is the man for the hour. Printed like a modern book, but in the fine old King James' version, it is believed that all Bible lovers will welcome their old friend, "The Gospel: According to Mark," in its new literary dress; it is hoped, too, that in this popular form book buyers and lovers of good literature may be led to purchase a book which needs only to be thoroughly and thoughtfully read to be greatly revered.

How to Make All-Stars-Andy Collins 2014-03-19 Hey kids, do you want to know how to make all-stars for your baseball league? Or parents, do you feel like the coaches keep passing your child up? Well no more! Or coaches, want drills and ways to motivate your players to get better? Coach Andy Collins is going to tell you everything he knows from his 35 years of youth and adult coaching and watching what works and what doesn't work. It's chock-full of ideas in 86 pages. He'll cover: * How your league chooses all-stars * What all-star selectors are really looking for * 7 tried and true methods of getting better at baseball * But more importantly, little known ways to get the people picking the team to notice you * And how to beat the "politics" that seem to get in the way Year after year kids sit in the stands crying after the all-star teams are announced and they weren't one of the players that were chosen. At the same time the students I've trained do make these same all-star teams. It was then I realized I had the information that the kids in the stands and their parents and coaches were looking for. Wherever there are kids around the world that play youth baseball, there are kids that long to make the league's all-star team. Every year it's the same, kids that desperately want to have their name called out (or see it announced on the list) don't make it, and a little bit of them is hurting deep inside; and they don't know why they were not picked. Little did they know that they could have fairly accurately predicted their chances almost from day one of when the season started. And if they knew what you're about the find out, they could improve enough in skill in the eyes of the all-star selectors as to be a better player or even make the all-star team. The good news is that in this book, there is a way to learn how to make the all-star team for the next upcoming season; and if not then, the following year (if you're willing to listen and follow the advice I give). While I have written this for parents and coaches to learn how this process works and how they can help these youngsters achieve their dreams, this is mostly a book written for the kid who wants to make all-stars, not a book for the parent who wants their kid to make all-stars (there is a difference). And it will be in that voice that this book will be written.

Coaching Stories-Karen Dean 2019-02-07 Being a coach is a deeply rewarding profession, but even the best coaches encounter moments of uncertainty and doubt. In Coaching Stories: Flowing and Falling of Being a Coach, Karen Dean and Sam Humphrey intimately share their varied experiences as executive coaches in 48 stories - some where they were flowing and glorious, and others where they were falling and ashamed. Dean and Humphrey guide the reader through the journey from a novice to a master coach by exploring twelve distinct themes, underpinned by the four parts of Dean's 'Exceptional Achievement' framework: setting out, doing, integrating and being. Each chapter focuses on a different theme, presenting specific examples and stories from the authors' work and reflecting on their learning and development at each point. Dean and Humphrey expertly assess topics, including confidence, talent, purpose and fulfilment, by examining times where they performed effectively as well as those where they fell short. In each case they consider what they wish they had asked or known about in advance, and each story provides an insightful look at what being a coach is really like. Practical and accessible, the book concludes with a section on further reading and study, explaining relevant theories, models and frameworks. Coaching Stories: Flowing and Falling of Being a Coach will be a compassionate and pragmatic companion for coaches of all kinds, both in practice and in training. It will also be a valuable guide for other professionals seeking development, including internal coaches, managers in a coaching role, HR and L&D professionals and will be a useful text for academics and students of coaching and coaching psychology. Dean and Humphrey are award-winning authors and have written a number of articles for leading coaching publications.

Roseline Rabouin-Roseline Gaston Rabouin 2018-04-24 This is a religious and non-denominational book. Bible answers are messages that God send to the whole world, inspired from the Holy Spirit about prophecies for the end of times that God has asked Daniel to keep sealed and secret

Da.12:4,9,10. In Matthew13:14-15 Jesus quoted what the prophet Isaiah said in Is.29:9-14. The book answers questions solely on God's written words by His Supreme Authority held in the Bible. People of all creeds in search of answers will benefits from it cause these are questions that all of us face, and they will be revealed by casting aside superficial beliefs. Combines through research and analysis of biblical verses to paramount questions that everyone must ask. like 1. concerning the rapture, people give their own opinion about it, which God forbids Jer.23:28-31; Is.55:8,9: for God's way isnot our way, His thought is not our thought. and Jesus Rev.22:18,19. by sayingthat they will go to heaven which is not in the Bible. 2. Did God promise to His people to send them to heaven? 3. Who is the Bride of the lamb? 4. Where will be the place that Jesus promises? 5. Where was Satan before his fall? 6. Are there any differences between Satan's plan Is.14:13,14 and those' who expect to go to heaven? 7. The reign of Christ on earth. Because God forbids people to use their own speech and say God says, is the raison why, I do not give my own opinion in this book. I am not a writer, I just deliver the message that God inspired me through the Holy Spirit, which is good news that will give peace of mind and insurance of everlasting life to everyone, no mater your religion, for we're all expected to die and face Jesus in the judgment day.

Jennifer L. Lane's Faith Adventures shows us in her vulnerability before both God and her readers that: 'Our God isn't shallow. Our God doesn't call us shallow, and He knows that sometimes with a phone call, a run stoplight, a routine blood test, or a sonogram, we can be thrown into the deep end.' Through both her experiences and Scriptures, Jennifer reassures us that: 'He is there in the deep end with us.' She shows us that it is precisely in the moments we choose to face our humanity - our anxiety, hurt and fear - leaning into the arms of our mighty God to hold, soothe and protect us, that our greatest faith adventures are birthed. Let Jennifer inspire, challenge and encourage you to step into the exciting Faith Adventures awaiting you. Pick up a copy of her book or gift it to someone you would love to bless this Christmas. You won't be disappointed." - Anna Smit, Christian blogger sharing her journey into God's love at www.joyofthespiritwithin.wordpress.com
