The Commandments of JESUS CHRIST And Of The New Testament-Michael H Yeager 2019-07-20 THE WORDS OF JESUS: Matthew 28: 19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: 20 teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen. According to one biblical source, there are over 1000 Commandments in the New Testament. This does not count all of the implied commands or teachings that are similar to the actual commandments. God has given important instructions to us, his people in order to keep us safe from sin. In most of this book, I only give you the scripture references for the instruction. Please understand that both the Old Testament and New Testament Covenants are based upon the principle of obedience by FAITH to God's commands. Even the New Covenant is one in which these commands and laws are to be written in the minds and in the hearts of God's people. Obedience by Faith in Christ separates true Christianity from false religion.

The Five Commandments of Jesus-Patrick J. Amer 2009-09 "In The Five Commandments of Jesus: A New Approach to Christianity, Patrick Amer presents to the ordinary Christian and the theologian alike his new, refreshing, and clear approach to the mission and meaning of Jesus of Nazareth. Amer identifies the five commandments of Jesus as central within the recorded ethical teachings of Jesus. These five commandments show the continued relevance and importance of Jesus in expressing God's will and plan for humankind. The book is clearly written and readily accessible to all readers. Discussion groups across denominations will find that this book meets each reader at the exact point at which we all find ourselves today." Roger Haight, S. J., Union Theological Seminary In this book, Patrick Amer describes his discovery of the five commandments of Jesus. He shows that the commandments are not a random selection of commands. They are an integrated and focused attack on humanity's most deeply embedded anti-social behaviors, those placed there by natural selection. He shows that these behaviors were in ancient times absorbed into humanity's public institutions, and they are still there. The kingdom of God is the community of men and women who live by the five commandments of Jesus, applying them in their personal lives and to public institutions as well. This book examines each commandment to show how it is to be practiced in one's personal life and how it is to be applied to public institutions. By practicing the five commandments of Jesus, the followers of Jesus participate in his redeeming mission and with him save the world.

Commandments of Christ-Joseph Dean 2010 Preface This book is like a companion to the New Testament; it can be called the New Testament companion. This book seeks to answer the most asked questions about God and his word. It tells of the things that we accept as truth without investigating their validity or their originality and of what existed to cause us to go astray. We take a born-come-see attitude, so we do not question it to see where it came from and what was said at the beginning. We receive the Gospel like the days of Noah. It is like a telephone game where you call somebody and tell them something. They call someone else and repeat what you said. By the time it reaches the fifth person, it is a completely different statement. That is how we teach a false Gospel. The wrong understanding is spoken so many times that we believe it to be true. We accept too many things without investigating where they began. We need to learn from Dr. Luke. Most honorable Theophilus: Many people have written accounts about the events that took place among us. They used as their source material the reports circulating among us from the early disciples and other eyewitnesses of what God has done in fulfillment of his promises. Having carefully investigated all of these accounts from the beginning, I have decided to write a careful summary for you, to reassure you of the truth of all you were taught. (Luke 1:1 4 NLT) Daily Bread Give us this day our daily bread. (Matt. 6:11) We are told to say this prayer, but we never questioned about it. Most of us assume. Many times a day, we feed our bodies through our mouths, and it goes down to our stomach; we need to be aware of feeding our souls. Man doth not live by bread only. (Deut. 8:3 KJV) We need to feed our souls from our eyes and ears to our brain. Yeshua says, Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entered in at the mouth goes into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? (Matt. 15:16 17 KJV) The bread mentioned in Matthew 6:11 is to feed the brain from our eyes and ears to our brains. Christ wants us to ask our Father for more of him that we can be more like him. Deuteronomy 8:3, the second statement, is saying to the Israelis that real life comes by obeying every command of God. That is where Yeshua's commandment comes in. Yeshua says, "If ye love me, keep my commandments" (John 14:15 KJV). You cannot keep commandments if you do not know them. The only commands spoken of are 613 commands in the mitzvah. Those mentioned in Exodus 20:3 17 are for everyone. I did my best trying to find the commands of Christ and list them book by book; you should read them from your Bible, which will help you to be familiar with the word of God. In Bible class, it would be good to study them in order to get acquainted with them. In Christianity, pastors say you should read your Bible to become like Jesus. If you do not have a guide, And he said how can I, except some man should guide me? (Acts 8:31 KJV) You could read through the Bible one hundred times and still couldn't act like Christ. Christ told us what to look for; if we find them and keep them, we will be like him. Christ says, "If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love" (John 15:10 KJV). There are three sets of commands. One, a set of ten, was given by the Father and written by his own fingers; the other 603 were given to Moses to write and be given to Israel. These were nailed to the cross when Christ died. And the other set was given by Christ through the Holy Ghost, which included a repeat of some of what was given to Israel. Christ wants to see himself in us. Before the thermometer existed, when a goldsmith wanted to know if the metal was hot, he would look to see if he could see himself in the melted metal. If he couldn't see him in the metal, the metal was not hot enough. When Christ can see his words manifesting in us, he will know that we are in love wi

The Commands of Christ-Tom Blackaby 2012-01-01 Jesus says in John 15:10-11, "If you keep My commands you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commands and remain in His love. I have spoken these things to you so that My joy may be in you and your joy may be complete." The Commands of Christ is an unpacking of that key promise, a simply powerful presentation of the loving imperatives we sometimes know more by rote than by heart: Love your enemies; Don't store up treasures on earth; Seek first the kingdom of God; Let your light shine before men, etc. Tom Blackaby's focused writing serves as a plumb line of sorts, guiding us toward a vibrant commitment to the Lordship of Christ that better shapes our lives, how we worship, and how we relate to others. You will begin to know more clearly and experience more fully the freedom that comes through obedient acts of love and service to God.

Imperfect Christian-Quentin D Smithers 2009-04-15 Followers of Christ advance the Kingdom of God by spreading the gospel. Once unbelievers receive the message, it is our responsibility to build up those young in the faith. In turn, as they grow in salvation, they may strengthen those who come after them- forever teaching about Jesus Christ, that the gospel may be spread abroad. It is my prayer that this book will aid you in becoming a help to others, by taking a look at what Jesus considered the two greatest commandments: loving the Lord wholeheartedly (Matthew 22:37-38) and loving our neighbors (Matthew 22:39). The first half of the book is dedicated to issues faced when building a strong relationship with God. The latter half emphasizes the need, process and benefits of building relationships with your fellow man. Within each page, we learn that as we grow in God, we are equipped to build our brothers and sisters of the faith. If we hold to this core principle of Christianity, we edify the body of Christ and show what it means to be a true believer about our Father's business. We are imperfect people, yet due to the grace of our Father we can say, "THROUGH CHRIST I'm perfected."

Commandments of Jesus-Norman H Drummond 2021-11-05 Before Jesus ascended to heaven, He gave His last instructions, telling us to "go make disciples" and "teach them to observe all things I have commanded you." But what are the commands of Jesus? Norman H. Drummond, who has served in a variety of Christian ministries over more than forty-five years, tackles that important question. As you read, learn how to: • identify the commands of Jesus found in the four gospels; • recognize the difference between which of Jesus's words are commands and which are important, precious, amazing, and awesome, but not commandments; • "make disciples" by clearly teaching new believers "all things I have commanded you." The commandments of Jesus were not handed to us as a concise list like the one Moses received on Mount Sinai. However, His commandments are recorded for us in scripture, and He expects us to obey them. Studying these commandments reveal a major difference between the commandments given to Moses and those given by Jesus. They are as different as "Thou shalt not ..." and "If you love me ..." and they are eternal truth.

The 120 Commandments of Jesus-Jeff Ordenez 2013-02-14 "He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love Him and manifest Myself to him." John 14:21 Do you love Jesus? Do you keep His commandments? Is the love of God manifesting itself as God's individual countenance over you? In "The 120 Commandments of JESUS," Jeff explains and teaches the 120 commandments of Jesus found in the gospels and why they are so important in developing spiritual life with God. This little book explains why Jesus repeatedly ask His followers to follow His commandments and what it means to be a "living vessel" of God. After an intense ten year search for God, Jeff accepted a church invitation from a co-worker. His spiritual quest came to an abrupt stop when he encountered Jesus transformative light. In the light he saw Jesus and heard His voice. Since his experience in 1999 Jeff has committed himself to knowing God. His early morning studies of the Hebrew and Greek scriptures have turned into communions with God. Others were so blessed when he shared his writings that his books are published worldwide. Jeff prays daily for all his readers between 4:30 AM and 6:00 AM MST US. Nothing is more important to Jeff than helping increase the presence of God on earth through people. Feel free to join hundreds of partners in praying "Let your Kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven."

Ten Commandments-John C. Williams 2012-11 God has given us ten simple rules to follow that we may have life and have it more abundantly. From the time He unveiled the Ten Commandments to the children of Israel at Mount Sinai until now, God's people have been identified by the fact that they follow His commandments. The Ten Commandments are the Christian's code of conduct that separates us from the rest of the world and serves as a barometer of our allegiance to the Creator of the universe. Ten Commandments: The Christian Code of Conduct examines the commandments of God and how they apply to the Christian life. The book also addresses one of the most misunderstood commandments--the fourth commandment and the call to observe the biblical Sabbath. Many Christians differ on their interpretation of this commandment, but through a clear study of the Bible, this book points to the truth of the Sabbath and the importance for Christians to follow all ten commandments. As the end of the world draws near, those who will be ready for Christ's return are "those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus" (Rev. 14:12). May God's followers be found keeping all ten of His commandments!

Why does Jesus say, He that forsaketh not all that he hath, can not be my disciple? We are taught what these sayings mean through the Spirit as we draw nearer to the Lord. By looking at the teachings of the Apostles throughout the New Testament, we will be able to ascertain a principle necessary to be a Disciple of Jesus Christ.

The Commandments of Love-Marcus A. Allen 2020-03-09 The Commandments of Love is a book that teaches you how to live by the principles and precepts of God's Agape love The words of this book came to me a vision, along with the complete knowledge of its contents in 1.2 seconds. The time it took God to put the knowledge of this book in my head was equal to one human pace; this event occurred as I passed through the door on my way in to work one day. Here is the question that I shall now put before you: What would you do if you were suddenly given a two thousand year old mystery? The answer . . . you announce it LOUDLY to the world. Countless pastors, teachers, and even students will pour over this book. I introduce insightful knowledge of the gospel in this book. Many portions of this book divulge the complete understanding of the parables of Christ. The Commandments of Love opens up the meaning of many of the sayings in the epistles of the apostles especially in the area of God's love towards man. This book is packed with scripture, and it is presented in a skilled demonstration of the Holy Spirit. The Commandments of Love reminds its readers to be ever-mindful of the practical application of the gospel. The author has made use of over 500 scriptures in this book to convey the importance of God's love. PROBLEM: The false prophets in the world have 98% of believers off course. God's power is not embedded in faith alone; but in his love. Faith cannot work without LOVE. The reason Jesus Christ commanded us to love one another was because love, when coupled with a person's FAITH, is the true healing power of God. The world and the church are one hundred miles off course from a one mile trip. Just as the Jews walked mindlessly through the desert for 40 years for an eight day trip, even so also is the church today mindlessly marching about. As a result of the knowledge of this, I knew that I had to write this book, so that men everywhere could learn of God's true love for his man and find their way home to God. This word of the Lord came unto me with great unrest, compelling me to write this book to his specifications. The words found herein were derived from the message of love given to me by the Lord, who instructed me to write The Commandments of Love. The breadth thereof (He said) was to have twelve (12) parts, which represents the twelve tribes of the lost sheep of the house of Israel; the depth thereof (He said) was to have forty (40) chapters, which the Lord declared represented Israel's forty years in the wilderness. The length thereof (He said) was to be four hundred and eighty (480) pages, signifying the four hundred and eighty years ". . . after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt . . ." until the building of the house of the Lord, written in I Kings 6:1. This, (He said) also represents the restoration of the children of God today, whose time is now. This word did the Lord give unto me by the mouth of his Holy Spirit, sent to signify his love for his people. This is why Jesus asked the question: ". . . when the Son of Man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?" St. Luke 18:8. This wasn't a question of FAITH, but of LOVE!

The Commandments of Jesus According to St. John-Arthur Markve 1951

The Ten Commandments for Jews, Christians, and Others-Roger Van Harn 2007-08-28 In this book eminent Jewish and Christian scholars come together to illuminate the Ten Commandments. Roger Van Harn has arranged the volume so that writers from both traditions dialogue over each of the Ten Words. A Christian or a Jew writes a penetrating essay about one of the commandments, followed by a shorter response from a member of the other tradition -- all done, remarkably, without sacrificing either Jewish or Christian identity. Unique for its authentic interfaith dialogue on dogmatic matters, The Ten Commandments for Jews, Christians, and Others offers pertinent guidelines for believing Jews and Christians today, with the goal of stimulating deeper conversation between the two groups. As Van Harn says, "Listening to one another may hold pleasant surprises that open us to new possibilities.

Principle- God's name is holy, powerful and glorious. Meaning- God's name is holy and should be treated with respect. there is power in the LORD's name and it shouldn't be used lightly. Because God is Spirit, we know Him through what He says about Himself, to take His name in vain violates God's nature. As God's creation, everything a person says and does should be done in order to praise and glorify God. (1 Corinthians 10:31) Bible examples- When a man named Shelomith blasphemed the name of God with a curse, the Lord commanded that he be taken outside the camp and stoned to death. (Leviticus 24:10-16) Jesus was accused of blasphemy because He claimed to be God. (John 10:33) James warned believers to watch what they say because the tongue is capable of evil and poison and can easily corrupt a person. (James 3:5-9) Jesus' Teaching- Jesus said, "...every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven...But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. For by your words, you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned." (Matthew 12:31, 36, 37) Jesus said to begin praying with: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name." (Matthew 6:9) Explanations: Jews and Jewish scribes would go to great measures in order to avoid saying or writing the LORD's name for fear of blasphemy. The Bible says we are to pray, heal, and baptize in Jesus' name. (Matthew 28:19, Mark 16:17, John 14:13, Acts 3:6) The Bible says that what we say is very important and it is a glimpse into who we are (James 3:9-12). God loves us and wants us to love and worship Him in whatever we are doing and at all times. God wants us to use His name; it is holy and powerful. If we can show respect for the names of our fathers, mothers, teachers and doctors, then how much more should we respect the name of our sovereign God. The Ten Commandments breaks the 10 Commandments into two main divisions: commandments about our relationship to God and commandments about our relationship to other people. This pamphlet is also a great resource on the history of the commandments and why The Ten Commandments were revolutionary for their time.
