A Course in Miracles-Helen Schucman, PhD 2019-03-20 A Course in Miracles is the acclaimed spiritual guide that teaches the way to universal love and peace is by undoing guilt through forgiving others. The "miracles" of the title refers to shifts in perception from fear to love, which fosters the healing and sanctification of relationships. Although expressed in terms of traditional Christianity, this life-changing work constitutes nonsectarian, universal spiritual teachings. The three-part approach begins with an explanation of the course's theory and the development of the experience of forgiveness. The second consists of a workbook, comprising 365 lessons — an exercise for each day of the year — intended to influence students' perceptions. The third section presents a manual for teachers, in which the question-and-answer format provides responses for likely inquiries as well as definitions for terms used throughout the course. Written by Dr. Helen Schucman, a clinical and research psychologist, and edited by her colleague at Columbia University, Dr. William Thetford, from 1965 to 1970, A Course in Miracles has been translated into more than 20 languages and sold millions of copies around the world.

The Two-Month Bridge to "A Course in Miracles" is a condensed edition of the Course that serves as a stepping stone to studying the full version of the Course. This book offers a two-month direct experience of the Course to help you decide if it's the right philosophy for you to believe, to study in more depth, and to apply to your daily life. For the first month, you will read just 308 of the 1249 pages of the Course. Less essential and repetitious parts of the Course have been omitted for greater simplicity so the beginner won't be overwhelmed with too much nonessential information. In order to facilitate learning, sixty questions have been inserted into the text to help you focus on the most important spiritual principles. For the second month, you will have the opportunity to put the spiritual principles you have learned in the first month into practical application by doing 30 of the 365 daily Workbook lessons. The 30 lessons selected for this training period will expose you to a wide variety of spiritual experiences that will help you to identify with your true nature as a spiritual being created by God. Some of these lessons help you to develop your inner attunement, while most of these lessons are designed to promote healthy personal relationships based on loving forgiveness.
