Theology Of Joseph Ratzinger An Introductory Study

Joseph Ratzinger, the Pope of the 21st century, argues that theology is the work of the Holy Spirit, who is present in the Church. Theology, in its true sense, is a search for the meaning of God in all of creation and history. It is a reflection on the mystery of the divine, and a search for the truth of things. It is a dialogue with all the great spiritual traditions of the world, and a search for the truth of the Christian faith.
