Equipping the Warriors-Gary Wilhelmi 2018-02-28 There are many books covering different aspects of freedom for the body, soul, and spirit, but we have not found any that integrate all three areas into a single, readily understandable book. Though many churches separate these into different ministries, we have found that they are intertwined. Decoupling them, or ignoring one or two areas, significantly impacts the ability to help somebody gain the freedom they are seeking. Equipping the Warriors was written for the purpose of helping Christians to understand the inner relationship between the three distinct areas. We believe that all Christians should understand the basics of what we have been told to do in Matthew 10:8. Some will go beyond a basic understanding and become practitioners. But we should all be what Andy Reese refers to as "Spiritual First Responders." This book was created to be both a standalone introduction, as well as the text for a class on freedom for body, soul, and spirit. We have used it for classes both domestically and internationally. What we have found is that it strikes a balance between being an introduction, while providing sufficient depth for students to minister as Spiritual First Responders. For some it becomes a springboard into delving deeper and becoming freedom ministers.

Healing in the Name of Jesus-Mark Brislin 2015-05-05 I have recently finished the English version of my "Healing School Training Manual" called "Healing in the name of Jesus," which I have completed under the inspiration of the moving of God the Father. At the beginning of 2013 I was made our church's first ever "Healing Team Leader." As a result of this new leadership responsibility I was keen to get everyone on the healing team "on the same page" so to speak. I have read many healing and deliverance books by Randy Clark, Bill Johnson, Andrew Wommack, Bill and Carol Dew and Gardiner Wilson. I was particularly interested in Gardiner Wilson's "Healing in the Name of Jesus." I have watched countless hours of Todd White, Heidi Baker, Tom Fischer, and Randy Clark etc. on YouTube and listened to hundreds of hours of CD teaching about healing by Randy Clark, Bill Johnson, Todd Bentley, as well as Bill and Carol Dew etc. etc. As a result I have collected together all the essential points I have learned from these great men and women of God and written in this book "Healing in the name of Jesus." These include the Biblical Basis for Healing, Words of Knowledge, the Five Step Healing Model, Principles of Faith, how to be a good catcher and how to work with translators; plus much more. I have been invited several times to teach from my book and on the subject of the Holy Spirit at my church's "Alpha Course," as well as recently as a seminar at our church's international youth conference called, "Jesus Live!" I also teach at my church's Bible school a couple of times a year on healing, using my book as the main source of material. I have ministered in Healing in many conferences over the years in the UK, mainland Europe, the USA, Colombia with Gary Oates and "Global Awakening" in Brazil with Dr. Randy Clark. Remember, this book is meant to be a "Beginners manual" to ministry and so I have, of course, left a lot of stuff out that would not be relevant to this level of teaching on the subject. My heart is to see "The Great Commission" fulfilled; to see believers equipped for ministry in healing, words of knowledge and to use these not only in the church, but in evangelism. The German title of this book is "Heilung in Jesu Namen." To Jesus be all the Glory!

Kingdom Impact-Putty Putman 2019-04-16 In Matthew 13, Jesus tells the parable of a man who stumbles across a treasure hidden in a field. He goes home, sells everything he has, and buys that field to own that treasure. This is what the kingdom of heaven is, Jesus says--a treasure worth everything. But the truth is, for most of us, our enthusiasm is often wrapped more deeply around a football team or the latest TV show than what God is doing through us. Lacking a purpose calling to the deepest parts of us, we numb ourselves. In this eye-opening, empowering book, pastoral author Putty Putman shows that there is a kingdom designed to provide your life with such compelling purpose that you will reorient your whole life around it. Here is your invitation into a life of significance, adventure, and wonder far beyond what you have let yourself dare to dream.

God Adventures-Darren Wilson 2016-11-01 For many people, Christianity has become an institution of rules, duty, and pothucks. But for filmmaker Darren Wilson, his life of cultural Christianity changed radically when a powerful encounter with God led him to begin making films that attempted to display the God of the Bible in living color. What happened over the next ten years has affected millions around the world, and has set fires ablaze in hearts that have long sat dormant. God Adventures is an honest and compelling book about the events surrounding the making of these powerful films (Finger of God, Furious Love, Father of Lights, Holy Ghost, and Holy Ghost Reborn), and is designed to take you into a deeper, more fulfilling and, yes, riskier relationship with God. Like Darren's films, this book focuses on: God's miraculous power and overpowering love. A Father desperately pursuing His children. The often misunderstood third Person of the Trinity and His relationship to the modern believer. God's dominance over other gods and supernatural powers. How the Holy Spirit wants to use everyone to bring change and healing to the world, not just professional ministers. Christianity was never meant to be a social club—it was meant to change the world. God Adventures provides biblical insight for the supernatural occurrences documented in Darren's films, along with behind-the-scenes stories that will inspire, engage, and challenge you to not settle for less than experiencing all of God.

Judge Not-Randy Clark 2018-10-10 A practical explanation of the difficult issue of judging according to Biblical descriptions.

Who Are You-Kevin McKinney D.Min 2019-08-09 Identity is an issue for both Christian and non-Christians alike, in that they look virtually the same. Our societies imply that if you have or possess a certain item, so you are able to do what you need to do, all so you can possibly be who you are. This is not the biblical example of Jesus and God's original intention. Part of the issue is that some churches, evangelists, and Bible teachers are singularly focused upon the broken image of Adam and Eve. They rush to the story of the fall of humanity to prove the point that we are fatally broken, flawed, and are in need of a savior. There we stay presented with a corrupted, broken, and distorted image of what humanity is. Without knowing who we were supposed to be, we will have no idea of what we are aiming for. How then can we carry out the commands of Jesus (Matthew 10:7-8; 28:19-20, Luke 16:15), or the proclamations of Luke 4:18-19 or Isaiah 61:1-2, without knowing who we are? The purpose of this book is to help you begin to see what it was and who it is that you are created to be.
